ORIGINS

For the benefit of new boys and others who read this brochure for the first time, a short history of the origins, aims and objectives of the Mal de Mer Club will provide a useful grounding for the forthcoming trip.

In the early 1930s, W. H. Gould (Uncle Jimmy) was working in Plymouth as a Branch Manager for an Insurance Company. On one of his trips to Scilly he got into conversation with certain of the Island's sportsmen and the subject of sport on the Islands was the topic for discussion. Opportunities for playing competitive sport on the Islands were limited so Uncle Jimmy offered to bring over a team of sportsmen who would play the Islanders at whatever game they chose.

In September 1932 the first party arrived and, with the exception of the war years, has been coming ever since.

Uncle Jimmy died in 1977 but the Island sportsmen from those early days remain very dear friends.

The objectives set by Uncle Jimmy from the first trip remain clear today - to encourage and foster sport and sportsmanship both on and off the field and particularly, in the Isles of Scilly, to encourage good fellowship with the Islanders, good feeling in its membership and a willingness to have a go when called upon.

A word of warning to new members, the Mal de Mer Club is not a democratic organisation, it is a benevolent junta comprising the President, Organizer and Director General with the opinions of the Treasurer thrown in for good measure. Do not question its authority, we have lost too many good men at sea!

Qualifications for Membership

- Proposed by a member, approval of the Organizer, Director General and President
- A second invitation to join the Mals
- Possession of a good sense of humour
- Respect for the D.G.'s commands
- Ability to hold upright all you consume
- Ability to play any three of the following games or sports:
  - Football, Cricket, Golf, Tennis, Squash, Basketball, Snooker, Badminton, Pool, Gig Racing, Clay pigeon shooting, Darts, Volleyball, Table Tennis, Hockey, Archery, Beach Football, Bowls, Rifle shooting, Sailing, Tug of War.
- The further ability to play any one well earns you a bonus point, the admiration of your fellow Mals and a place at the top table.

MISSION STATEMENT

A Mission Statement from your President-Elect

It has taken 24 years, but I've finally made it to the top table – and what a great honour it is to be President of this truly unique Mal de Mer Club.

I count myself extremely fortunate to be a “Mal” which has given me the opportunity to compete against the islanders in so many different sports whilst taking in the unspoilt, natural beauty of the surroundings. For that I am indebted to my sponsor, Jetson, who invited me along in the first place, taking little time to point me in the direction of the nearest bar!

From the moment I first stepped foot on the islands I was captivated by the spirit of the Mals and our very special relationship with the islanders which remains as strong as ever thanks to our mutual love of competitive sport.

MISSION STATEMENT (contd.)

Looking back at the brochure from my first trip in 1987, the striking thing is that apart from the addition of some new “sports” – Tug of War, Sailing and the Boat Race being among the latest - very little has changed over the years which ultimately is what makes the Mals so enduring.

On this year's trip I want us all to live up to our great traditions by maintaining the Spirit of the Mals. This spirit means different things to different people, but for me it's about renewing old friendships and welcoming the new boys; (on that note, it's great to see so many newcomers this year) giving your all to the cause, even if every bone in your body aches to the core, sticking together as a group and lending full hearted support to your fellow Mals.

Once we've retired from our sporting endeavours I look forward to us recounting stories at dinner and lifting spirits with some banter in the bar. Remember to join in the singing (hum if you don't know the words) and if in doubt seek out the hierarchy (whoever they are) to guide you on your way.

Finally, I'd like to pay tribute to two stalwarts and former Presidents of the Mals who passed away this year. Our former Organizer Sailor Pooley and Gordon Nabb were both very influential in my early years and made an immense contribution to the Mals epitomising what we are all about. They will be sadly missed, but through the Spirit of the Mals I'm sure their memory will live on.

Enjoy your trip and remember there's nothing that beats celebrating a great win.

GOLF

It has long been decreed that all who are able to walk must play golf each morning. Sadly, this rule is not now enforceable.

Those Mals whose state of health is such that the prospect of a walk round the Golf Course will seriously endanger their health will be excused and should report to the Director General who will seek a second opinion from our expert medical team.

Goofers are those handicapped 28 and are identified as such on the list opposite.

There are particular rules for Goofers:

- Do not pick up lost balls until they have stopped rolling;
- Goofers having lost or destroyed two balls at any one hole must desist from further punishment at that hole and enter ten on their card;
- Ten is the maximum score for Goofers at any hole in any competition;
- When Goofers play with golfers they must desist from coarse language should the golfer hit a bad shot. Retribution should be extracted in the bar;
- Dislodged turf should be replaced!
Do not eat the blackberries behind the sixth tee!

PLEASE NOTE:
The Golf Organizer
will decide on the format
for morning golf.

GOLF DAY

Glorious weather greeted 31 Mals all eager to do battle for the Robinson Receptacle. Your President started like one of Alan Guest's trains and your Golf Organizer was soon extremely worried about the comments of someone off 28 coming in with 50 points. I needn't have worried. He soon reverted to type and I was able to relax. Two notable events occurred during the day:

1. The Golf Organizer played off the ladies' tee and was awarded the Champagne Moment and had to wear the President's costume for dinner. Embarrassing for me, but Brownie points from Jan for the bottle of bubbly.
2. After consulting with the hierarchy, it has been decided to appoint an assistant to myself, so when for whatever reason I am unable to carry out my duties, a smooth transition will take place. We also decided to go for young blood, so a warm welcome to Alex Polhill as the Assistant Golf Organizer. Dinner was an excellent affair and 36 Mals enjoyed the evening.

Election of officers

PRESIDENT

Paul Calfe was elected President and duly flushed in.

D.G.

Martin Gibbs was re-elected.

ORGANIZATOR

Jeremy Chadwick was re-elected.

TREASURER

Shaun Galloway was re-elected.

AUDITOR

Ray Farr was re-elected.

Treasurer's Report

I am happy to report another tedious financial update with no nasty surprises. We made a small loss on the trip last year due to an unforeseen increase in baggage charges, and that is the main reason for the increase in the trip costs this year. Our cash reserves remain constant as does the support of the "100 Club" wonderfully administered by Roy Bound, which underwrote £800 of the new boys' fees. Let's hope this year is equally as dull and boring.

New Boys on the trip

Kieran Counihan, Steve Beahan, Richard Flower Jnr.

New members flushed in

Nathan Summers, David Williamson

Organizator's Report

The Organizator made positive noises about the influx of sporting new boys and the continued support and enthusiasm of the islanders. He felt that these were healthy signs for the club and thanked all for their help.

There being no further business, the meeting closed.

PRESIDENT

A Profile of our President

Steve Dann

Steve Dann is our President this year. Always smart and well groomed, Steve will bring back a sense of style to the Presidency.

Family commitments have delayed the position of 'high office' arriving sooner. 1987 (a vintage year for 'new boys') was Steve's first visit to the Isles, and like all good Mals he has represented the club at most sports.

In his real life Steve advises on 'Crisis Management' and he has kindly agreed to hold a couple of 'Surgeries!' (Don't bother Smithy you are beyond surgery!)

A born leader, we will be victorious.

REMEMBER

- On the Islands, obey the commands of your President, when he rings the bell he wants your attention immediately.
- Eat or converse at the table. Reading a newspaper or being late for meals will earn a stern rebuke from your President and a fine.
- The President will not be able to allow those who wish to smoke to do so due to the new smoking ban.
- Stick to the programme, being together, staying with the party makes the trip a happy one.
- If you have any complaint ask of the Organizer's permission to speak to the Director General on the matter.
- Morning surgeries are a regular feature for those feeling unwell, you may find the cure worse than the complaint.

2010 REPORT

Report on the 2010 Trip - 'Calfey's Cockney Caper'

The purchase of 'early morning super-saver' tickets meant that the first Mals flight left at 7.40 a.m. An order for bacon butties was wired ahead and the 2010 trip was on its way.

At 12 noon 38 finely tuned athletes assembled on the patio at Tregarthens for the trip briefing. New boys were welcomed and some old Mals welcomed back. The usual do's and don'ts were mentioned and the emphasis on a winning trip was brought to everyone's attention. Following a brief rendition of 'in the mood' on Brian Pooley's bugle the flag was raised, Captains picked their teams and Andy Smith went down the Mermaid!

We started poorly last year it must have been a 'one-off'! Unfortunately that was not the case, losing at tennis, basketball, volleyball and squash. The table-tennis ended 2 - 2 which apparently was a 'sort of win'? Not a good omen.

The hotel staff were introduced to the Mals and due to the absence of last year's president, the stand-in president, Alan Guest, forgot to stand in, leaving the treasurer to pass the balls over to President Calfe. Sponsors introduced their 'new boys'. Andy Smith, resplendent in his best denim jeans, introduced Steve Beahan. Matt Hughes sold us Kieran Counihan, and Richard Flower told us his son Richard Flower was a 'chip of the old block', not really a recommendation!

Nathan Summers and Dave Williamson were flushed into the ranks of the Mals.

As usual, banter at dinner staggered between the humorous and the incoherent. Special attention was given to the brochure change for Thursday afternoon. The Organizer admirably fielded all questions and told everyone to 'wait and see'.

2010 REPORT (contd.)

Dawn came too soon along with the rain. Never mind, we're Mal de Mers. The Morgan Mug and Perry Pot were competed for in abysmal conditions, and due to a doping scandal the results were delayed.

The rain finally stopped and it was down to the beach for beach football, tug of war and the sailing regatta. A good crowd turned out to watch an entertaining game of beach football. Despite a miraculous goal from Keith Williams the Mals went down 8 – 6. Whilst the unabled-seamen queued to disembark the beach, a new sport was about to take place. Endorsed by Andy Smith as a complete 'waste of time', the Mals, after a hesitant start, tugged themselves to the first victory of the trip winning 3 – 1. Meanwhile back at sea the Mals fleet went down 19 – 14! Or was it 14 – 19!

Inspired by some voracious tugging, the hockey team assembled at the garrison and, despite dreadful weather managed to retain the trophy, winning 1 – 0. Victory number two.

Dinner started more soberly with the president declaring his overwhelming joy at winning the 2010 election and re-iterating his 'winning ways' mission statement.

2010 REPORT (contd.)

Guest night is usually saved for Sunday night but due to prior carnal commitments, Robbie Savage look-a-like, Fabien Snatch made an appearance. His insight into various Mals' wives and girlfriends was most stimulating and various injunctions were issued.

To the Scillonian! All the games were keenly contested with victory number three coming in the pool and narrow defeats in the darts and snooker.

Back to Tregarthens for beer and medals.

Another wet start and despite the unfavourable conditions Geoff Snell and Andy Smith won the 9 hole greensome foursomes. The rain continued into the afternoon and despite a closely fought golf match the Islanders ran out winners 5.5 – 3.5.

Luckily there was no shortage of candidates down at Juliette's garden where Messrs Epton and Nelstrop managed to carry Stewart Ward's bottle of Chablis for a full nine glasses! I remember when they were keen ...

In amongst all the shenanigans a new sport was taking place, bowls. Again a closely fought match resulted in a 2 – 2 draw. These new sports are going well!

After drying out it was time for our evening sustenance. Andy Clay proposed a toast to the new boys and Kieran Counihan ably responded. Steve Dann was confirmed as President-elect, with Andy Clay as Deputy-President. The drugs had obviously worn off and the Perry Pot and Morgan Mug winners were announced as Glenn Dann and Pete Nelstrop respectively.

The first badminton pair departed and were soon followed by the second pair and the crowd. A 2 – 1 victory to the Mals meant victory number four!

2010 REPORT (contd.)

The Chablis experience took its toll on 'junior jackal' David Epton and the 'Polhill-gang' went down 767 – 761 in the shooting. Archery was similarly well contested but ended in a narrow defeat for the Mals. Another long day over and it was back to Tregarthens for a 'one song only' visit from the 'Pogues.' I'm sure I've seen them before somewhere!

Saturday dawned and the weather improved at last. Jamie Pooley won the Bishop's Beaker and Geoff Snell (Again!) won the Nosworthy Noggin.

Unbeknown to the Mals, whilst they were sleeping, the St. Mary's cricket captain had been up to the garrison and watered the run-ups! Why? We will probably never know, but an undefeated season may have had something to do with it! Anyway with cricket cancelled it was time to focus on the football. A very competitive game was narrowly lost 4 – 2. Great to see Fabien Sykes back on the trip!

Only one more sport today – the boat race. Bribery was obviously involved in the team selection! A fantastic start was completely spoiled when one Mal team member stopped drinking half way through his pint and opened a packet of peanuts! All was lost. Anyway let's have a four hour sing-song and then go to bed!

2010 REPORT (contd.)

Another sunny morning, a later breakfast and a boat trip what more could you ask.

Roy Dale fed up with giving his 'all' to the playing and supporting went off fishing! Must have a different version of the brochure to the rest of us!

The shooters shot off down to the heliport and were narrowly defeated 169 – 155.

Cricket. The Tresco pitch passed inspection and the Mals batted first. 'Little Dick' Flower carried his bat for 62. Dave Showell and Jamie Pooley added 24 and 28 respectively adding to a total of 138 – 2. In reply Tresco only managed 103 all out. Keith Williams took 4 wickets and Monty took two wickets for zero runs. Victory number five!

The second leg of the football was now upon us. Again another closely fought game ended in a 4 – 2 defeat. The score belies the effort and style with which the Mals played. Unlucky boys!

Guest night dinner beckoned, and as usual the Tregarthens team put on a sublime spread. Mals and Island friends exchanged stories and our President 'Calfey' proposed the toast. Selena responded on behalf of the Islanders.

Headmaster Bryce Wilby gave us an update on the building of the new school and informed us that Jess Robson would be the recipient of Mal de Mer Merit Award for 2010.

The Mal players gave us their take on 'My Fair President' and then it was time for bed.

Monday started dry and the Texas Scramble was won by Alex, Simmo, Alistair and Graham

2010 REPORT (contd.)

Willington. All the clubs were stowed in the shed and the Mals filed down to the quay for our final boat trip to St. Martins.

The Mals won the toss and elected to bat. 'Little Dick' Flower excelled again and despite umpire Ray Farr, made an unbeaten 76 with Dave Showell again adding a healthy 52. A partnership of 118 must be a Mal record!

Controversy follows Ray from his private life onto the cricket field! His decision to give 'Little Dick' run out at the non-strikers end when none of the opposition had touched the ball was astonishing! (The Times)

St. Martins were 37 all out with 'Little Dick' taking 5 wickets and another 'Chablis' moment going to David Epton when he skittled out a dangerous looking 12 year old. Victory number six.

A quick dip for some, and then it's back to St. Mary's. The weather started to get worserer and the gig-race was restricted to just going beyond the harbour wall. The island juniors showed us all how it was done and another Island victory was chalked up.

The last supper of 2010! The D.G. proposed a toast to President Calfey.

Another notable trip with some superb performances. Just bed now followed by countless goodbyes!

Thank you Mr President, thank you Mr Organizer. Can't wait for 2011 and another Tug of War!

OBITUARIES

It is with enormous sadness that we note the passing of four Mals since our last trip. Each will be in our thoughts and will no doubt be looking down and providing us with their celestial support.

B. E. 'Sailor' Pooley

The death of Brian Pooley marks the passing of a remarkable Mal.

From his first trip in 1970 - introduced by Paddy Hope - to his last in 2009 Brian added greatly to the fun and entertainment of the trip.

A man of wit, charm and repartee, he could usually be found at dinner on his feet making some humorous comment about the day's events to such an extent that one past President was heard to remark "Brian spends so much of his time at dinner on his feet, I don't know how he finds time to eat!"

This was, however, Brian. He was irrepressible! He became President in 1983 and organizer in 1990 and threw himself into that role as though he had been made for it, he stepped down in 2007.

Relationships with the islanders were always important to him and they too will feel a sadness at his passing. He died on the 18th April after a long fight with cancer. His funeral on the 9th May was attended by the entire Mals Hierarchy and in all some 37 Mals and seven of their wives/partners formed part of the congregation, which also included Norman and Peggy Discombe who had travelled up from St. Mary's.

Nicknamed "Sailor" because of his early working life and his continued love of the sea it was appropriate that his ashes should be scattered at sea and so on 8th July in a private boat skippered by Gerald Thompson this act was carried out by his son Jamie. The chosen spot was just off the coast of St. Mary's having views of Tregarthens, Star Castle, St. Mary's Golf Club, St. Agnes, Tresco, Bryer and St. Martins, all places dear to Brian.

Also in the boat was his beloved wife Sue and island friends Norman and Peggy Discombe.

Sleep well old friend, the battle's o'er.

OBITUARIES (contd.)

G. F. Nabb (Gordon)

Gordon's first trip was in 1976 and his last was in 2009, in that period he made 28 trips having his Presidential year in 1991.

Introduced by Ben Guest, Gordon was a footballer and cricketer of considerable skill although past his best when he made his first appearance on St. Mary's. His constant wish was that he had become a Mal 10 years earlier.

A man of quiet demeanour he had a good sense of fun and thoroughly enjoyed the Mals company and the Isles of Scilly, and had the rare honour of never being fined on the trip.

He died on the 20th May after a long debilitating battle with cancer but throughout that time he remained cheerfully optimistic and looked forward to his next trip. His funeral on the 3rd June was attended by the Director General and many Shropshire based Mals, he will be missed by us all.

Martyn Woodfield

Martyn, son of Vic "Tiger" Woodfield died very suddenly last October aged 52. He was born in Plymouth and had a lifelong passion for the "Green Army" as well as Man. Utd. One of the more cerebral Mals, he graduated as a biochemist, then studied medicine before becoming a GP, basing himself in Bodmin.

Martyn was a quick, left-footed footballer and keen cricketer. He introduced and sponsored our esteemed treasurer; however, his Mals career was cut short by illness. Martyn also toured the islands with the Cornish Doctors' cricket side Methigion, maintaining his spectacularly low batting average!

Martyn is survived by his wife Fiona, 3 daughters and one son who we will hopefully see on the trip one day.

Paul Kavanagh

December 9th, 1926 - August 2011. In his younger days Paul served on HMS Bluebell, before devoting all of his working life to Shell.

Nicknamed Caesar, Paul was a New Boy of the legendary George Twist and himself, introduced a number of New Boys to the Mals, including, amongst others, Bob Fox. This first class Mal embarked on 20 trips to the islands with the Mals between 1951 and 1982 and he will be sadly missed.

Kiss Me

Kate

We were delighted to receive the happy news of the nuptials of one of our most eligible Mals.

Lincolnshire Farmer Kate Epton finally had her wings clipped (and presumably one or two rather more painful procedures) and pledged her troth to Winco Willie Windsor in a quite literally moving ceremony over the Skeggy skies.

With engines revving, Kate climbed aboard and Willie slipped into her cockpit ... and off they soared into the future.

DUTIES

Officer of the Day

This post was created some years ago and has run smoothly for many years. Remember the duties should be undertaken responsibly. These are:

- To ensure that every Mal receives an early morning call at 7.00 am to 7.30 am.
- To ensure that all Mals proceed to meals, the bus/boats at the appointed times.
- To collect golf sweep and hand this on to the Golf Organizer.
- To collect fines and pass them on to the Treasurer.
- To assist the D.G., Organizer and President in any other task required.
- To raise the Mal de Mer flag pre-breakfast every morning and lower pre-dinner each evening.

Baggage Masters

The Baggage Masters are to ensure that all golf clubs are picked up from and delivered back to the heliport at the appropriate times. On arrival at Tregarthens Hotel, see that the luggage of the elderly and frail are taken to their respective rooms.

On departure they are to ensure that baggage is placed outside the hotel in accordance with the D.G.'s instructions.

Presidency

It is the duty of all Mals to respect the office of President during his year of office which commences on the island of St. Mary's and ends in the following year on the island. The President Elect shall not assume the title of President until he is flushed in. Abuse of this regulation will earn a firm rebuke or worse from the Hierarchy. Any Mal addressing the President Elect as 'President' will suffer similarly!!

Sick of defeat, club hauls its way to a beach tug o' war triumph

As is suggested by their sickly name – and defeat by the islands' junior gig rowers despite being given a three-lengths start – the Mal de Mer club, who play sport against Scilly every year, are not too hot on the water. But at landlubbing tug o' war they were too good for the islanders on Porthmellon beach and notched a rare success during a recent crowded programme.

'100' CLUB

The 100 Club has now been in existence for a number of years and for any new readers its purpose is to assist new young sportsmen who would find it difficult to afford the full cost of the trip. These new boys are essential to the survival of the club in providing competitive sport against the Islanders.

There are three draws during the year for £50 and £25 and on the trip for £100 and £50. The tickets cost £12 each.

Please support the 100 Club generously by contacting Roy Bound or Paul Simmonds. There's no limit to the amount of tickets you can buy!

For everybody's interest, the winners during last year were;

2010 Trip	£100	Alan Guest
	£50	Dave Showell
Christmas Draw	£50	Paul Simmonds
	£25	Ray Farr
Easter Draw	£50	David Nottingham
	£25	Alex Polhill
Golf Day	£50	Andy Clay
	£25	Graham Willington

For all those people who have paid in the last year, you will have one last chance to win on the trip, then the new sequence will begin.

Well done to Roy and Paul and our thanks to those Islanders who continue to support the 100 Club.

DRESS CODE

Morning

Casual - sweaters, slacks, what you intend to play golf in (no spikes in the dining room). Soft spikes are mandatory.

Evening

Jackets and ties must be worn at dinner. Rings or studs through noses, ears or lips are very strictly forbidden. Blue ties and 75th year commemorative ties are now in stock. Do not wear colours that clash.

New boy, Little Dick, looking bemused at dinner. Was it the Champagne Moment costume, or one of Wilf's match reports we wonder ...

Sporting/Boat trips

Cricket	With our Tregarthens sponsored cricket shirts, you will only need to bring white trousers and a jumper. Trainers must be worn for batting and bowling.
Soccer	Once again the Mals' shirts are provided, so be sure to bring boots, shorts, sock, shin pads and Alice-band.
Hockey	The old Scillyquant football shirts will now be used exclusively for hockey. Blue shorts and socks should be worn. Shin pads and boots are also a good idea.
Shooting	Countryside commission regulation dress.
Boat trips	Some form of waterproof clothing and a thick sweater. Plastic sheets available on board if it gets really rough.
Disco Dancing	Lycra and spandex always work, plus Cuban heels if you have any. If in doubt, just dress like Kenny.
Gig Racing	Shorts, T-shirt and shoes you don't mind getting wet. Waterproofs or water wings may also be required!

ABSENT FRIENDS

Even with a cast of 44 this year, there are still a large number of Mals unable to join us. Below is a list of all those Mals who responded to their 2011 invitation but are frustrated in not making the trip due to one or more of the following reasons:

- Family commitments
- Business commitments
- Age and health issues
- Other miscellaneous feeble excuses

We wish them all well and look forward to them making it next year.

The Organizer would like to thank all who took the time to reply and those who did are listed here:

Dudley Hawley
Graham Nottingham
Martin Juhe
Graham Barton
Keith Williams
David Showell
Colin Izzard
Jimmy Gray
Reg Cutts
John Nicholas
Vic Woodfield
Tom Hope
John Williams
Mark Sykes

Lengthier replies from other Mals are shown below and opposite:

Jet Martin

Dear Steve,

Best wishes to you as President and to all the Mals on the Trip this year. Sorry I can't be with you but I don't travel far these days. I shall be thinking of you all.

Dave Windeatt

Apologies for not being in touch earlier, but I was still trying to see if the trip was a possibility. Sadly a busy schedule combined with a few health issues, mean that this year I cant make the Islands. I hope you all have a great time, Geoff tells me you have a big squad this year, so no excuses for losing matches. Give my best to the incoming Pres, and I hope maybe in the future to make it to the Scillies again.

Fabien Snatch

Mr Snatch sends my deepest apologies for missing this year's trip, last year Fabien was interviewing Mals to find my replacement and only two applicants ticked all the boxes to fill the role of this very important job. Unfortunately the first, Andy Smith, was not successful as Fabien's clients saw a picture of him and they politely turned down his application. The second and most popular applicant with Mr Snatch's clients is unfortunately this year's President! So with much regret Fabien will be performing my duties for the Mals for one more year. Fabien hopes Steve will have a great trip, but be prepared the real job starts in 2012.

Ciaron Sykes

I am very disappointed not to be on this year's trip. After opening my new ballet school for Albinos, I wanted to put my time and money into something slightly more macho! The opening of my Tanning and Beauty salon "Brown Snatch" unfortunately clashes with the 2011 trip. I wish Steve all the best and hope 2011 will be successful for all Mals and new boys.

P.S. 50% discount at "Brown Snatch" for any Mal wearing a tie.

Harry Marsland

Harry sends sincere apologies for his absence this year. His elder daughter is due at University about the time the Mals will dock at Tresco. Despite his suggestion that the Uni could offer a more flexible timetable, that isn't possible. He is already in training for next year, in the certain knowledge that Andy Clay will need all the help he can get!

Royal Surprise at Tregarthen's!

Holidaymakers were stunned when they came down to breakfast to find - guess who? - elbowing their way to the front of the popular (but somewhat proletarian) cereal'n'fruit buffet.

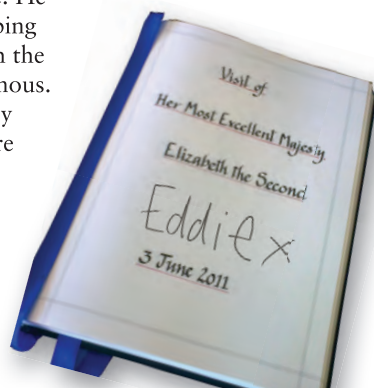

Mrs Trellis, visiting from North Wales said: 'I didn't know what to say. I tried "Good morning, your Majesty, your hair is looking lovely today!" But she didn't reply. I don't think she heard me. I must say, though, that I wish he hadn't noticed me. It isn't my fault I'm Welsh, and no-one has ever asked before if I taste of mutton. He really was shockingly rude.'

Sid and Doris Bonkers, from Neasden, said: 'We'd heard this place attracts celebrities. Didn't that Tony Blair used to come here for his holidays? Or was it Thatcher? Either way, that can't've been nice for the locals. No wonder they drink so much.'

The island hit the headlines a couple of years ago when some top footballers came out to show their skills on the Garrison Ground. Apparently they were persuaded to do so by their 'sponsors'. Islanders relished the chance to learn from top English talents like midfield maestro Stevie D.

So this particular couple's visit barely caused a ripple. It isn't the first time they have been - indeed, Tregarthen's hosts an annual retreat for their extended family. However, rumour has it that the Old Queen and her Sweary Consort are 'naffed orf' with never getting Room 2, so booked to have their own private trip in order to sample its unique atmosphere.

Hotel Boss Ben Jakes took it all in his short stride. He is used to rubbing shoulders with the rich and infamous. "Oh yeah, Ray Farr comes here every year."

BRIAN POOLEY TROPHY

We are delighted to report that after being upgraded from a demonstration sport to a bona fide sporting event, the sailing competition has come of age with the creation of its very own trophy.

Commissioned by the Islands Sailing Captain, Richard Mills, the magnificent glass trophy has been created on Scilly and named after our very own Sailor Pooley - who himself was a great supporter of the event and enjoyed (?) some famous moments competing.

If we could only suss out the scoring system, we may one day get our hands on the thing ...

CRICKET TEA? SUPER-SIZE ME!

The Mals supporters always enjoy the cricket tea on St. Martin's

MERIT TROPHY

At each Guest Night Dinner we ask the Head Teacher of the School to announce the School's recommendation for the recipient of the Mal de Mer Merit Trophy for the year. Some Mals may be slightly unsure as to the full detail of this and it is as well that we again place on record the importance which we - the Mal de Mer Club - attach to this annual award.

It is our premier contact with the School and an important link between the Islanders and the Club since many earlier holders of the trophy will now be meeting us in our various sports or in the shops/hotels on the islands. The award is accompanied by a cup and cheque donated by our President. The cup was introduced in 1956. Unfortunately our archives do not show the donor but the first name engraved upon it was J. R. Williams.

In 2010 The Merit Trophy was awarded to Jess Robson.

For the benefit of those Mals who are not familiar with the criteria upon which the recommendation for the award is made, the certificate which accompanies the trophy is reproduced.

CAN YOU HELP?

If you happen to be an Islander reading this, then this message is for you.

Roy Bound is endeavouring to establish a "Where are they now?" record for all the previous winners of the Mal de Mer Merit Trophy.

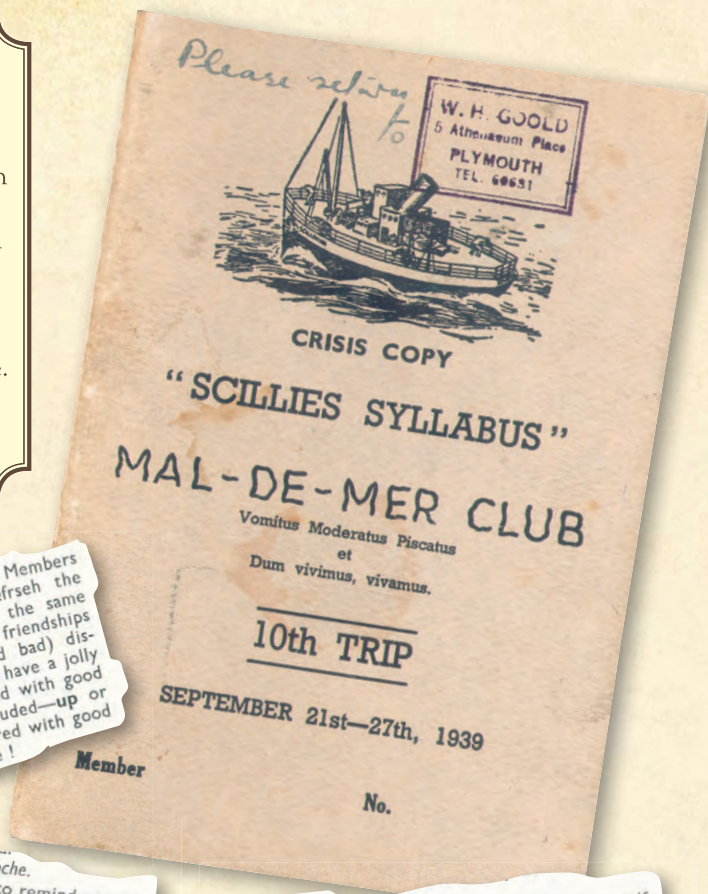

If you happen to know how any previous winners have fared since they left the school, then please let Roy know on 07740 604099 or email roy@roybound.plus.com

It would be great to learn how their lives have progressed and to possibly run a feature in next year's brochure. Many thanks for your help!

THE MALS' TRIPS

Recently discovered deep in the Mal de Mer vaults were two fantastic old brochures from the early Mals trips. Although times have changed, the spirit and essence of both the trip and the people involved remain true to the ethos our founder Jimmy Gould put in place. The brochures are well-thumbed, and make very interesting reading.

I trust the foregoing notes give new Members some idea of our "outlook", and refresh the memories of old Members, that new friendships be made, new Characters (good and bad) discovered. In other words that we all have a jolly good time, free from worries, blessed with good health (on board "Scillonian") excluded—up or rather down the vomiters (!); favoured with good weather, with no regrets or remorse!

Sans fear et sans reproche.
May this little booklet serve to remind you of good days amongst friends, with a good purpose, and may you forgive the literary failings and shortcomings of

Yours, till seasick,
UNCLE JIMMIE,
Organisator.

NOTE.

Having read the above, you can comfort yourself in the fact that the Scillies have a reputation for being very healthy and conducive to longevity, and rumours have it that the Scillonians once had to shoot a man to start a cemetery!

By way of a generous outgoing gesture, our 2010 President has used his influence in the world of print to reproduce each of the above brochures (complete with the original coffee and ink stains!) You should have received your personal copies of each with this brochure. If not, please approach the Organizational, who may be able to help.

Consume all you want, but carry all you consume !
(Let us hope there is no shortage !)

This year we elect our new President—E. Perry Morgan. "Perry" was a founder member, he has been a real stalwart since our first visit, and is the first of our early active members to hold this office—he has played and excelled in all our games, and he has had a distinguished war career.

Handwritten note on back of 1946 brochure, author unknown:

"Went down in 1945. Could not get over so stayed in Newquay and played golf. It was end of October but was warm enough for a swim! Very windy.

GENERAL NOTES.

This is our first official trip since 1938, and will be our 10th trip to the Islands since the Club was formed in 1932, and we hope to recapture the old spirit, and maintain the pre-war traditions, though we are all older in years and not as agile as we were, we must take as an example our old friend and past president, "Sir Harry," who played football for our team in 1936 at the age of 60, though we may not be able to emulate his physical prowess, we can maintain his young outlook.

BIS PUERRI SENES.

He is with us again this year, bless him. We are fond of you, Sir Harry.

During the war the following old members have "passed on," and we mourn their loss, but we know they would wish us to carry on in the spirit they helped to create.

Peter Crick	...	...	Killed in action.
J. W. Deacon	...	...	"
D. Ockenden	...	...	"
Dr. Locke	...	...	"
P. Pike	...	...	Died on Active Service.
J. S. Mercer	...	...	Killed by enemy action.
Peter Darby	...	...	Died.
Pat Ireland	...	...	"

We also mourn the loss of the following Scillonian friends:
Roger Stideford ... Killed in action.
Jack Ellis ...

The tempo of the trip is at a slightly slower pace than previous years, but nevertheless it is hoped every member will wholeheartedly support the programme, and those who do not play in the games will encourage and cheer on those who do—barracking permitted !

We welcome all new members, active or inactive.

We look forward to meeting again all our old Scillonian friends at St. Mary's, Trescoe, and St. Martin's, and hope they are as pleased to see us as we are to see them.

We appreciate all the kindly interest shown to us in the past by them, especially the Poynter family and staff, Capt. Reseigh and his "hell ship," and Rodney Ward for his assistance

This little booklet is written as a memento of our trip, and may it remind you in years to come of a happy trip to the beautiful Scillies, and of the good fellows you have met, and many old members who are not with us, will think of us this week-end, and we shall think of them—but above all, may the spirit of the Club and its aims tend to create happiness to yourself and those around you.

Yours till unconscious,

JIMMIE GOOLD,
Organiser.

Guest Night Dinner

A great traditional evening as we invite our Island Guests to our Tregarthens HQ for a fabulous feast prepared by the hotel chef and his team. As Headmaster of the school, Bryce Wilby will inform us who he has recommended to receive the Mal de Mer Merit Award for 2011.

Prepare to be bemused as our Guest Speaker, Richard Mills attempts to explain and justify how he scores the Sailing match.

10.30 pm

It's all change as the room transforms into a splendid amphitheatre for the thespians to perform.

11.30 pm

The Officer of the Day will ensure that guests' carriages are available at the Hotel Courtyard as required.

The critics, the stars and autograph hunters mingle in the bar to discuss what's just been seen - was it a comic triumph or a comic tragedy?

MONDAY

OFFICER OF THE DAY

8.45 am

Organise yourself - check you've got all your kit together - it's a last visit to the Golf Club and we're off to St. Martin's afterwards.

Your final chance to secure some golfing glory.

11.45 am IMPORTANT: Make sure that immediately after the round your golf kit is packed securely and left in the trolley shed for transportation to the Heliport this afternoon.

Now it's au revoir to Matt, as he rushes back to the mainland.

12.15 pm

All aboard the 'Surprise' as skipper, Gerald takes us to St. Martin's for the last time. Will victory complete the whitewash or simply restore some pride?

All officials as previously announced.

Note: Records show that both Keith Williams and Matt Hughes are on hat-tricks for this match (but unfortunately they are both missing this year!)

SHARK ATTACK!

EX-PRESIDENT IN NARROW ESCAPE

MUNCCHED! Captain Pugwash shows how he repaired his chewed shoulder.

Former Mal de Mer President, Simon Greiner, aka Captain Pugwash, cheated death recently, when he came face to face with a 70ft killer shark! The monster of the deep, the relentless killing machine, the ravenous beast with the insatiable appetite and the dead-eye stare was actually only after his prawn sandwich ... but the shark got to it first, and took lump of Simon's shoulder with it.

Enraged by the loss of his lunch, Simon went into a frenzy, ripping the shark fin from fin, mangling the leftover pieces, retrieving his lunch and devouring the remains of the shark (teeth 'n' all) along with his prized sandwich.

He was later seen in a local pub, recounting his tale to Master Bates and Seaman Staines, whilst, repairing his own wounds with a Pritt-Stick and a long-arm stapler, before downing 28 pints of Bishop's Finger and retiring for the night with a barrowful of wenches.

An alternative report suggests that he fell over on the nursery ski slopes of Mount Snowplough! Sounds a bit far-fetched ...

MONDAY 3RD OCTOBER

The Taj M'al

...a little corner of Sparkhill
in downtown Hugh Town

Benji & his staff
are delighted to offer you
an authentic taste of the Rat Raj

Steve's Dannsak

*it might turn your ring red, but you'll still have a Blue nose.
For the bigger appetite, just say "SuperSize Mel",
and we'll serve you the extra-large Glenn Dannsak*

Mal-frezi

A different recipe every year, combining traditional ingredients with a sprinkling of fresh ones. But the effect is the same, inducing hallucinations and nausea.

Rogan Joss

It's an experience!

Bangs-galore Pharr

Very rich. But your partner might want to keep away afterwards.

Lamb Tickle

our farmers' favourite.

Old Goat Stew

no-one's favourite. Pungent and bitter.

Pillow Rice

Smithy's favourite.

Korma Kameleon

No, it is there on your plate, Sir.

Calf Kor-blimi

*Random un-matching ingredients
just hurled together. Popular last year.*

Room 2 Special

*We can't reveal the aged and dried ingredients, but for New Boys
we do recommend taking a few mouthfuls of Pillow Rice with it.*

Al-oo Gosh!

Can surprise some.

Kenée Bhoyl

Not to be confused with Alee Bhoyl. One's mild, one's rather fiery.

Jamie's Bombay Duck

You can be assured of no runs with this one.

Sag

Like Eddie's Chops.

King Prawn Notti

*There's definitely something fishy about this one.
Please note: Mal dishes described as containing 'prawns'
are usually found to be shrimps.*

Chicken Feeli

This one repeats on you.

Skwirti Crab Special

We are pleased to announce that following a visit to St Mary's by a Scottish trawler, hot'n'spicy Boyled crabs are back on the menu

Guest Lagers

Whatever delightful dish you order, one of our Guest lagers will wash it down nicely. Beware, though! Too much Guest lager will induce torpor, and you'll be Bound for bed! Note: you may be used to a frothy head on your beer - our Guest lagers are very smooth, and served 'flat'.

We hope you enjoy your meal, and return next year.

Our kitchens are expecting delivery of an old traditional pot-bellied

Clay oven!

VIGNETTES

These informal profiles are conceived and written by a selection of 'volunteers' who were each given a random collection of names. The authors remain anonymous, their text unaltered, and the editor distances himself from anything that may be considered offensive, inaccurate or slanderous - so there!

123 = Official Mal number

N/A	Aaron Barker	Ginga Ninja	Hampshire
The latest addition from the Exeter University stable, Aaron is a talented sportsman with cricket and football being his strongest suits. A midfield maestro with young legs and a hard hitting batsman, his claim to fame is once hitting a West Indian fast bowler for a six over cover (but he doesn't talk about it much). A versatile chap who will be able to turn his hand to just about anything (with the possible exception of the boat race!) Great to have you on board mate, enjoy the trip!

177	Roy Bound	Shambles Roy	Eighth off the Second
After years of managing to turn the golf into a complete shambles, Roy has felt it necessary to appoint an assistant to ensure it is even more of a debacle this year. By the end of the trip his new assistant will have attained all of the skills that Roy has honed over the years: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Making sure you play with the same people as the previous year's trip.</li><li>• Encouraging new boys to play with the same people everyday.</li><li>• Morphing David Epton from a goofer into golfer and back into goofer again over dinner.</li><li>• Not knowing after four years if Pete Nelstrop is a golfer or a goofer?</li><li>• Allowing Stewart Ward to play off 36 in a Texas Scramble!</li><li>• Being able to respond instantly when asked by a Mal if they are 7th off the 3rd or 3rd off the 7th.</li><li>• Referring any kind of ruling required over to Simmo.</li></ul>

VIGNETTES (contd.)

276 Kenny Boyle Keneez Baw Glezzga

"Give me" ____ "Names of" ____ "Mal de Mers" ____ "Who Can't Count" ____ "And clap their hands" ____ "At the" ____ "Same Time".

"Aw for christ sake that's rubbish by the way, why me? I dae it every time." does this ring any bells or sound familiar?

Yes, you have guessed it; Kenny is back and is as coordinated as ever.

Kenny has been bigging up his recent progress on the golf course so I can't wait to see his new, smooth, coordinated swing with a lovely, languid tempo. Mmm yeah right!

The nicest, gentlest and most generous Glaswegian you could ever meet is back on the Islands and it is good to see him back.

N/A Paul Broadbent Abacus Anfield

A skilled mathematician, author and Reds fan, Paul hasn't had to count many trophies in recent years, but his skills will be very useful at the end of the trip if you need your bar bills checking.

Recently rebuilt after long term basketball and skiing injuries, Paul is now ready to excell on the various sporting courts. He even took a year off to do fifty things at 50, so his first Mals trip must be the finalé to his half century. Have a good trip.

260 Paul Calfe Mr. President Emirates

He thinks it's all over, not quite Mr. President, not until you hand the balls to Steve Dann on the Isles of Scilly at dinner on Wednesday 28th September.

What a great year you have had, leading from the front on every sport, I think I can speak for all those Mals who attended your year by saying, you were a Diamond fridge freezer, often looked cream cracked and suffered the pain of your farmer giles, above all have left us with lots of Dick Emery's. (ask Simmo for translation).

If only Arsene could lead like what you did life would be wonderful for all you Gooners. Paul, as always, it will be great to see you on the trip this year and may you keep on coming and who knows we may see some young Calfes on the Islands in the future.

242 Jeremy Chadwick

Chaddy

Not quite London

If ever anyone was born to be the Organizer of the Mals and succeed the erudite and cultured Brian Pooley - it certainly wasn't Chaddy.

But if its pffaffing, being late, losing the plot but somehow fumbling his way through any situation and rescuing victory from the jaws of defeat that you're after, then he's the man.

Despite his many handicaps Chaddy has never won any golf silverware on the trip.

Inspired by Darren Clarke's 20 unsuccessful attempts before winning the Open this year, Jeremy has worked hard on his golf this summer. Armed with a new driver and a few of Darren's golf tips (drinking more Guinness being the key one) the Organizer is looking forward to breaking his duck this year.

Have a great trip old friend and make some history!

257 Andy Clay

The Olympian

The Farm

Andy used to claim he was a "new boy farmer" but now he's minted on subsidies and hand-outs, just like the rest of them.

From a new boy to the Mals in 1992 through to our President Elect this year, Andy has effortlessly made the transition through the ranks and is now knocking on the door of the hierarchy.

In Mal de Mer terms he really has been there, done it, and got the T-shirt on the trip. New boys can rely on Andy for some wise council, well hopefully?

Have a great trip Andy, learn and take inspiration from Steve Dann on how to enjoy the great honours that lay ahead.

VIGNETTES (contd.)

294 Kieran Counihan

Speedy Gonzales

London-ish

Holy Jeepers! What a first year this new boy had - like getting a 147 break the first time you play snooker, Kieran was great from the start.

This new boy got stuck into all sports and excelled at them all, especially the Hurling! Or was it Hockey? He is a top man to have a pint of the Black stuff with and it is great to see Kieran back on the trip. We all hope his flushing in goes well, don't forget the towel!

P.S. Rumour has it that Kieran told Jamie to tell Steve to introduce Smithy to Tai Chi, so expect to see Kieran in reception every morning at 5.00am.

290 Roy Dale

Wensley

Billingsgate

It's all been said before, the seagull at St. Agnes, how a nice guy like Roy is a pal of Fudger, what charming company he is, been known to like a drink and a great sportsman, will have a go at anything.

What you get with Wensley is what is says on the tin, a great Mal, now on his 3rd trip.

Will be good to see you back.

Tight lines.

239 Glenn Dann

Used notes only!

Brum

Hacking around St. Mary's or hacking into mobiles, we can see why Glenn took early retirement from the force!

Don't let that quiet exterior fool you, he is always on the job and as head of Presidential security, this will be a very challenging year for the more 'talented' of the Dann boys!

All luggage will be sniffed (apart from Smithy's) and no liquids above 100ml will be allowed near the President!

Good to see you back. Don't forget the guitar.

VIGNETTES (contd.)

232 Steve Dann

Ladyboy

Bangkok

(To the theme of Robin Hood)

Stevie Dann, Stevie Dann
He's got a big Blue nose
Stevie Dann, Stevie Dann
He dons the finest clothes
He looks heaven sent
Stevie is our President!
Stevie Dann, Stevie Dann, Stevie Dann

Hell Yes, Oh Yeah, Wow wee!!

It's Steve's Big Year and what a guy to have as our leader, a true all-round sportsman on the pitch and a top bloke to have a beer with. Steve turned down the job offer of a lifetime to be our President so let's hope he has a very successful trip.

Three things to know about Steve Dann;

- 1) He is a close friend of Carson Yeung, so expect fines to be big if they are to get Blues back into the premiership
- 2) He once won a speedboat on bullseye, so darts and gigs captain sign this boy up.
- 3) His brother is well 'ARD!! (Not the dog from Eastenders!)

Scotland has the Proclaimers
Manchester has the Neville's
London has the Mitchells
But the Mals have the Danns !!

We all hope Steve enjoys his year at the top of the tree. (Don't call him a fairy, well Ard might bite!!)

P.S. It was Steve who introduced Smithy to Tai Chi, so expect your President to be in reception for a 5.00am start.

Have a great one Stevie!

VIGNETTES (contd.)

266 Joss Davidge

Gadget Boy

Sunningdale

Drummer Boy? Toy Boy? Ball Boy? Marine Boy? Badly Drawn Boy?

No – Joss is our very own Gadget Boy and when it comes to technology Joss is completely full of ... Apps

Desperate for a Wi-Fi hot spot on St Martins? Unable to update your Facebook status whilst rowing in the “Golden Eagle”? Then never fear we have the man to sort it. Rumoured to be 15 yards longer off the tee this year, and fit enough to make a welcome return at right back in the football team, all looks set for a great trip, have a good one.

285 David Epton

Red Baron

Hanger Lane

Did you know, no I didn't, I hear you say, there are 530 people in the UK with the name of Epton and did you also know that in the world there are 12 Eptons per 1m people, did you also know, yes we do, I hear you say, that the Mals have the top Epton, yes our Dave is officially number 1 of all Eptons.

This quiet, well-mannered, fiercely competitive Mal is a great asset on any sporting field and after buying him a beer will amaze you with stories of how he, single-handed, took on the might of the Islands air force and prevailed so that other Mals may visit the Islands in safety.

May all your landings be safe ones.

N/A Rob Farnham

Yak e da

Goodness only knows

Welcome Rob to his first island adventure. This hybrid Welsh/ Scouse gentle giant of a man is already limbering up to become a 'Mal'. Reconstructive cosmetic surgery has finally rebuilt his knee (rugby injury), this coupled with the cauliflower ear lift makes him fighting fit and ready to grace the sports field once more.

A keen all round sportsman, when Rob is not thundering a Titleist around the links of 'Hoylake' he can be found on the badminton court, playing tennis or even kicking a ball around (no longer egg shaped) ... and as his family home is just a few yards from the beach, he should be a natural at the water-borne events. His hidden secret though is his leaning towards adorning himself in ladies' lingerie; this should make him a great hit with the thespians, and an interesting addition to the tug o' war team!! It's great to have you on board, Rob, enjoy your first trip.

267 Richard Flower

Big Dick

Lightweight

It's never a good trip when you are constantly out-shone by your more talented son! Never a Mal to take things lying down BD is out for revenge! He'll want to open the bowling and the batting, row the gig single-handed, and take on the boat race team all by himself. But as we all know reality will kick in about 10.15p.m. and our little haberdasher will sneak off for a nap!

This has got to be your year! On my signal unleash hell! Av it!!

295 Richard Flower

Little Dick

Chelsea

Little Dick is certainly no shrinking violet, Richard is a great cricketer and puts fear in the Islands teams when they see his name on the team sheet, plays a mean game of golf and is favourite to win the Perry Pot (you can call me Al had better up his game) Little Dick, whilst being a fierce competitor, is great company to share a pint with.

Good to see you back again, have a good trip.

258 Shaun Galloway

M0000!

Locally Sauced

"If the sandwich and the pasty had a lovechild, what would you call it?" This was the marketing conundrum set for the directors at Ginsters, which is why Shaun is now 'heading up' the 'van' sales team! He wanted to call it a 'Simmo', but was out-voted 10 to 1 in favour of the 'Bara'.

What this Mal doesn't know about the hot snack market is not worth knowing!

Keep an eye out for Shaun on a garage forecourt near you!

A good honest Mal!

VIGNETTES (contd.)

230 Ray Farr

Uncle Sausage

Droitwich

SUPER-INJUNCTION

275 Wilf Feely

Censored

Leamington Spa

If there's something strange, in the neighbourhood,
who you gonna call? - Wilf Feely
If there's something weird and it don't look good,
who you gonna call? - Wilf Feely
He ain't afraid of no ghost ...
Mals Captains if you need a man, who gives his all,
who you gonna call? - Wilf Feely
But for a match report in under 3,760 words, you're never gonna call - Wilf Feely.

With apologies to Ray Parker Junior

234 Martin Gibbs

Deeeeeej

High Office

Since demotion from his former esteemed position of 'man-of-the-people' to General Dogsboddy, Gibbo has worked assiduously to cultivate an air of control and authority. Whilst lacking the easy charm and grace of his predecessor, he has put in the 'hard yards', notably the hiring of Gok Wan to sort out his couture, and John Prescott as his speech-writer. Unfortunately, the letters went in the wrong envelopes, and his wardrobe this year is supplied by a fat bloke from Hull, and his speeches have been written by an Oriental trans-sexual.

Happily, in so many aspects of Maldomania, he leads from the front: still the loudest on the touchline, and the first at the bar. If only he'd re-grow the Freddie Mercury 'tache.....

VIGNETTES (contd.)

219 Eddie Gladden

Son of the Soil

Sod

Farming is paying so well these days that Eddie can afford to go semi-intensive and employ 'Swampy' Smith to oversee the transition into organic farming! All is going to plan with the heroin/muesli harvest hitting several 'highs'!

Thankfully this casual outlook to farming is not transferred to the islands where Eddie is as competitive as ever.

New boys take note: if you want to know what is required of you on the Isles take a look at Eddie (preferably not before 9 a.m. and not after 11.30 p.m.) He's a winner!

216 Alan Guest

Borat

Down by the riverside

William Shakespeare, Quentin Tarentino, Marlon Brando, Stanley Kubrick and Andrew Lloyd Webber, these guys got nothing on Mr Alan Guest. Alan walks the walk and talks the talk, not sure we understand everything he says, but it's all damn funny. Does the outside represent what's going on on the inside, in this case, Yes!

Be sure to hear his stories, his jokes and songs as they are the stuff of legend.

The story being told by the guy down the chip shop, is that Alan told Kieran to mention to Jamie to pass on Steve to introduce Smithy to Tai Chi, so expect to see Mr Guest in reception at 5.00am every morning!

150 Ben Guest

Ben Gurion

Shropshire

This season, Tregarthens, in competition with UK Gold, are showing re-runs of "Ben Behaving Badly".

This ex-bowler, ex-footballer, ex-squash player and ex all-rounder is far off being an ex-golfer and will never be an ex-Mal!

He's even made arrangements for his ashes to be scattered off the right hand side of the third fairway on St. Marys, so he can spend eternity with his balls. What a man!

Should make the golf team, but is also keen to demonstrate his skills at badminton, cricket, gig rowing, tug of war and flower arranging. After several years in the UK most people can understand him, but not at 2 o'clock in the morning, so please send him to bed early!
289	Matt Hughes	2 bags	London
	Mal Mystery Explained! A few years back, young Agent Pooley was given a mission by the Elders. The briefing went: "Jamie, you seem unnervingly comfortable in the presence of old men. Hanging round with the likes of Uncle Sausage and some of those sweaty, overweight geezers who Smithy brings along ... For Chrissakes, haven't you got any mates of your own age? If they can play sport, why not bring 'em on the Mals?" And so it was that a succession of young, athletic, fresh-faced youngsters started to appear on Jamie's arm at the Penzance heliport. Then, one year, he turned up with Matt Hughes. He didn't exactly fit the mould, rather he burst out of it. Colourful, loud and with an appetite for, well, food, he made his mark (indeed several of the stains have still not been removed). But since then, Jamie's talent pool has mysteriously disappeared. Too many young Mals to mention (and I can't remember their names anyway) ... all, like the Lost Boys, disappeared ... and yet Matt 'Two Bags' Hughes has got larger, and larger ... Maybe it was Tregarthen's refusal to serve his favourite 'Whole Horse' sarnie at lunchtime, or maybe it was jealousy of the graceful athleticism of these rivals ...

VIGNETTES (contd.)

240 Martyn Hurdley

Stranger

Brumville

Last seen on the islands in the year of the Tiger over 20 years ago, Martyn makes a welcome return. Whilst he's now a signed up member of the veteran class, the passage of time has done nothing to diminish this Mal's energy levels on and off the pitch. As a result he is likely to be seen bossing the midfield on the Garrison field and holding his ground into the early hours at Tregarthens Bar. With a voice to die for (literally!) there's nothing Martyn enjoys more than a good sing song, but don't ask for a solo performance. A terrific all round sportsman, expect him to give his all to the cause. Have a great trip.

N/A Sam Lighting

Neon

Electric Avenue

Sam will head up the street to the Garrison with a sparkling sporting pedigree on his side. Having won a sports scholarship for rugby, tennis, cricket and athletics he had a flood of offers from professional teams and has therefore worn more than the odd fluorescent sporting strip in his time, & has surely set the stage for legendary status (where have we heard that before!). He still plays tennis regularly (tennis capt please note!) and golf, but with a wife and two daughters, this is now in a state of flux. He is a tenacious competitor and incandescent with rage if on the losing side, so could add a bit of security for the defensive line in the footy. He loves a good beer & laugh with the lads, so perhaps you can help him spot some of these as you head down the Mermaid. Have a great first trip Sam, hopefully the first of many.

198 Steve Marlow

Stoive

Sooten Cowldfield

Well who would believe it, and after all this time! Our 1996 President is back on the trip.

A stalwart of the Mals during the 'Post-war' years, Stoive has sharpened his hockey-stick and is back to settle a few scores!

He will probably try and re-introduce the 'Debating Society', which if I remember rightly went down like a 'Hog-roast' at a Barmitzvah!

Good to see you back.

213 David Martin Dangerous Dave Storytellingland

Dave was unfortunately unable to attend last year so we took to the Islands 'Presidentless' meaning the immediate Past President Guesty got to pass his balls on to Calfey. Was it really two trips ago that Dave was the Prezzie? Memories of the 2009 trip stick long in the mind, particularly Dave's penchant for a story over dinner. Every evening was filled with countless hilarious stories delivered by clever and witty Mals who were all desperately competing for airtime; the rest of the time we just had to put up with Simmo and Smithy. Sorely missed as a sweeping centre-back for 'The Capers' last year. Have a great trip pal - see you at the bar!

288 Peter Nelstrop Pete Leadenham

Is he a golfer or is he a goofer? who knows (the golf organiser certainly doesn't). Hopefully the golf organiser's assistant will be able to finally add some clarity to the shambolic situation this year. What has been labelled 'The Nelstrop Question' in some parts of the media will certainly be Alex's first big test. We all wait with baited breath as to which competition Pete will be competing in on Thursday morning.

Now part of the furniture, Pete is often seen with a glass of white wine debating with the farming community as to whether he sold his wheat at the right price this harvest. Enthusiastic and competitive on the hockey pitch, tennis court and squash court. Pete is a real asset to the trip and a thoroughly top bloke, he comes this year armed with a brace of new boys; Pete - are they golfers or goofers?

271 Mark Newton Jones Dale Orange County

Mark still bears the scars of an horrific injury to his index finger sustained on the hockey field during his last trip to the Mals back in 2003. Thanks to years of counselling and physiotherapy, not to mention some cosmetic surgery, his personal fitness coach has passed him fit to travel. Don't be fooled by the sparkling smile and sartorial style, this fashionable Mal has an inner steel which will no doubt come in handy whether it's competing on the football pitch or clearing the pool table at The Scillonian Club. In recent years he's honed his golf swing with a little help from Ian Poulter and when he's not on the water at West Kirby sailing club, he loves to take to his dinghy in the warm Mediterranean seas. Whether it's pounding the streets or scaling the heights, Mark is a true action man in every sense. It's great to see him back and up for the challenge - just watch that finger!

252 David Nottingham Notty Cheltenham

This man simply does not stop - still one of the first names on the team sheet for the football and cricket teams, one of the last to go to bed and all this at the ripe old age of 50 (or what is more commonly known as 'Middle Aged Maldom').

A real Mals stalwart who is always at the business end of any trip. New boys beware - he will try and stitch you up !

253 Ricky Phillips Rickeye Downtown Sooten Cowldfield

Returning to Scilly as 'Stoives' minder, Rickeye assures us that he hasn't lost any of that blistering speed we saw in the mid 90's. Apparently Cyrille Regis's football boots aren't quick enough anymore and Jerome Thomas's can barely keep up!

A talented actor and coiffure 'Rickeye' is hoping to spend some 'qualiteye' time with his biological father at the paper-shop! Where have you been?

N/A Steve Pickard Steve the Pirate The Brownlow

Although ever present in the DG's Lincolnshire headquarters, The Brownlow Arms, Steve a keen apiarist can also be found tending his hives, so don't be surprised to see him kitted out in his white suit searching for the rare orange Scilly Bee. Sure to challenge Wardy for ping pong honours.

Have a great first trip.

VIGNETTES (contd.)

272 Alex Polhill

(You can call me) Al

Camberley

I've vignetted Alex so often now, I'm turning into his official biographer. I first described this most steadfast of Mals when he and Geoff were young pups, the Mals' very own Ant & Dec.

Stretching to his full 5'1" on tippy-toes, peeping over the bar in the Mermaid, the apple-cheeked youngster couldn't convince the barstaff that he really was 18, so often turned to the likes of old Al Guest to buy him a half-of-shandy. Then, one day, whilst playing on the floor of Eddie & Simmo's room, he had the brilliant idea of collecting a few of the hairs gathered under the bed, and glueing them to his chin! The bearded Alex was born, and, since that transcendental moment, he's always been the first man at the bar! Seek him out and he'll doubtless buy you a pint. Cheers Alex!

278 Jamie Pooley

Poolos

Londinium

The ultimate competitor, there's rumour told of how he has pushed to the ground pensioners to get his growth cream prescription first at the pharmacy. Bowls like Botham, bats like Bell, runs like Gibbs, our inspirational captain leads from the front. Been known to serenade us with a romantic ballad or two after a few Rum & Shrub at the bar, so sing one for us this year Poulos!

The inside story is Jamie told Steve to introduce Smithy to Tia Chi, so expect to see Mr Pooley in reception at 5.00am sharp!

226 Paul Simmonds

Simmo

Shropshire

Living in the large shadow cast by Eddie Gladden cannot be easy, and it has certainly taken its toll on Simmo. The maintenance of Eddie's luxurious coiffeur have rendered Room 9 into something more akin to a branch of Toni and Guy, leaving poor Simmo with little space to address his own personal needs. Aside from restricting necessary attention to his personal presentation, living with Deaf Ed has negated the need for speech, resulting in the reduction of this once-eloquent raconteur to a series of incomprehensible mutterings. So please spare him the 'Albert Steptoe' gags; he's much more thin-skinned than the Cheeky Cockney persona beneath which this tortured soul shelters.

Befriend him. If nothing else, you'll get in the golf team.

VIGNETTES (contd.)

218 Andrew Smith

Fudger

Titan

Tai Chi Captain

(To the theme of Robin Hood)

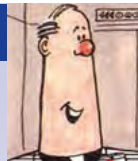

Andy Smith, Andy Smith
His chopper in his hand
Andy Smith, Andy Smith
Biggest in the Land!
Looks like a five wood
He'd use it if he could
Andy Smith, Andy Smith, Andy Smith

After being turned down to replace Fabien Snatch, Andy returns once more to grace the islands with his sporting prowess and early evening banter at the bar.

If you cross Sean Connery with Roger Moore, Andy is what you get! This is the sharpest dressed and smoothest Mal to have ever limped on the Isles! We all wish we could have a bit of old smudger in all of us! Ooh Matron! If any new boys have the honour to join him on the golf course, watching this yoga guru pick the ball out of the hole is inspiring! Andy recently became a fully qualified Tai Chi instructor and he will be taking lessons in reception every morning at 5.00am.

Hope you have a great trip Andy!

P.S. Please don't mention his failed job application with Mr Snatch, he is not very happy that Steve Dann was chosen ahead of him; surely Andy is better looking than the Pres?

236 Geoff Snell

Popeye

The Sea Bed

*Oh my old Mals an Admiral,
He wears an Admirals hat.
He has to wear a lifejacket!
Because he's not very good at that!*

Definition: Admiral Commander-in-Chief of the C's (surely seas-Ed), canapes, cheese, custard etc. Can be Rear, Vice or a type of Butterfly. I think we can discount the latter!

Geoff has taken to sailing like a duck to orange sauce and I think with Gerald retiring this year our own "Rear Admiral" is his natural predecessor.

Always great company when he manages to shake off his room-mate!
Welcome aboard.

292 Nathan Summers Stealth Leamington Spa

Nathan is very much the ladies man; tall, dark, handsome, immaculately turned out, charming and equipped with the stealth like qualities which are required on the Islands. When Nathan (or Anne as he is sometimes known) is not charming the Island ladies he is taking part in all the sporting activities that the Mals are involved in. A top bloke who will always give 100% to any captain who calls upon him. Currently vying with Joss for the title of 'Captain of the Gadget Team'.

Nathan - great to see you back. Have an excellent trip !

268 Stewart Ward El Cordobes Andalucia

The more you dig into this fascinating Mal's past, the more you begin to understand what makes him tick!

He's not just a car-sleeping, ping-ponging, hockey-stick wielding, wicket-keeping, caddy-mastering baggage handler! He's a Bull-fighter!

Let's take the Islanders on at that!

Nick-named the 'Rock' several years ago, he has grown so much in stature we will have to call him 'Cliff' from now on!

Olé! Show us your castanets!

291 Graham Willington Hodges Walmington-on-Sea

The is only one term to describe this man - Beer Monster! After a strong showing in the various ale houses of Scilly, Hodges was plucked from obscurity to add some ballast to the Mals boat racing team. Unfortunately stage fright ensued and the sprint event ended up as a marathon! Lets hope he has been in training for this year's blue ribboned event.

A thoroughly interesting chap and an asset to the trip, buy this man a pint (for training purposes) and you will learn something new. Graham - great to see you back, have a good trip and make sure the lights are all out after dark!

The Male♂ Rules

For the benefit of those ladies browsing through these pages, here's a little enlightenment for you. We always hear 'the rules' from the female side, here are the rules from the Mal(e) side.

1. Men are NOT mind readers.
(FIRST & FOREMOST RULE)
2. Learn to work the toilet seat. You're a big girl. If it's up, put it down. We need it up, you need it down. You don't hear us complaining about you leaving it down.
3. Sunday sport on TV: it's like the full moon or the changing of the tides. Let it be.
4. Crying is blackmail.
5. Ask for what you want. Let us be clear on this one: subtle hints do not work! Strong hints do not work! Obvious hints do not work! Just say it!
6. Yes and No are perfectly acceptable answers to almost every question.
7. Come to us with a problem only if you want help solving it. That's what we do. Sympathy is what your girlfriends are for.
8. Anything we said 6 months ago is inadmissible in an argument. In fact, all comments become null and void after 7 days.
9. If you think you're fat, you probably are. Don't ask us.
10. If something we said can be interpreted two ways and one of the ways makes you sad or angry, we meant the other one.
11. You can either ask us to do something, or tell us how you want it done. Not both. If you already know best how to do it, just do it yourself.
12. Whenever possible, please say whatever you have to say during commercials.
13. ALL men see in only 16 colours, like Windows default settings. Peach, for example, is a fruit, not a colour. We have no idea what mauve is.
14. If it itches, it will be scratched. We do that.
15. If we ask what is wrong and you say "nothing", we will act like nothing's wrong. We know you are lying, but it is just not worth the hassle.
16. If you ask a question you don't want an answer to, expect an answer you don't want to hear.
17. When we have to go somewhere, absolutely anything you wear is fine ... really.
18. Don't ask us what we're thinking about unless you are prepared to discuss such topics as football or cricket.
19. You have enough clothes.
20. You have too many shoes.
21. I am in shape. Round IS a shape!

Watch the Mal Movies

A picture's worth a thousand words - allegedly. In that case, save yourself a shed-load of reading by viewing these two great Mals Movies. Both can be found on the Mals website, address below:

Don't miss this!

For the complete 2010 story visit www.maldemerclub.com and click the symbol shown here.

You'll be able to view the trip through the eyes of our very own Quentin Tarantino. Thanks Glenn, can we have the same this year please?

Also on the website is a link to another YouTube movie. It turns out that the author, Jeremy Price had made this from pictures taken from an old family photo album - with no knowledge that the Mals were still going strong. It's titled My Grandfather's Cricket Tour to Scilly and shows images of his grandfather on one of the very early MDM trips in the 1930s. We thank Jeremy for letting us use this link.
